Lucille P. Butler Scholarship

General Information

The NAACP acknowledges the high cost associated with higher education and is committed to providing financial assistance to African Americans and minority groups who demonstrate academic promise. In 2009, the Lucille P. Butler Scholarship was established in commemoration of Ms. Butler, who was a lifelong and prolific member of the organization. The committee awards two $5,000 scholarships to students with business majors. These students exhibit strong leadership skills and are actively involved in their school or community.
